Subject: Carolina Water Service, Inc. Order No. 2014-207, PSC Docket No. 2013-275-WS (Feasibility of Interconnection)

Dear Mr. Butler:

I am writing you as the Commission's appointed Hearing Officer in Docket No. 2013-275-WS and copying Jocelyn Boyd and Joseph Melchers as the Commission's standing hearing officers.

As you know, in Carolina Water Service's last rate case, the Commission directed the parties to explore the feasibility of an interconnection between the systems serving the Forty Love Point and Indian Fork subdivisions and the City of Columbia Water system in order for CWS to provide water distribution service to those neighborhoods. See Order No. 2014-207, PSC Docket No. 2013-275-WS, p. 22. Under the terms of the Order, the parties were to report on their findings by September 4, 2014, six months from the issuance of its Order.

Since the Commission issued Order 2014-2076, CWS has exchanged information with counsel for the Forty Love Point and Indian Fork subdivisions ("the HOA") and the Office of Regulatory Staff. However, CWS believes it is possible to identify substantial areas of agreement regarding this project, and that a short period of additional time would help us reach that goal. CWS is therefore requesting an extension through Wednesday, September 10, to report the parties findings regarding the feasibility of interconnection to the Commission. I have consulted with counsel for the ORS and the HOA, and they do not oppose this request.

Please let me know if you should have any questions, or require additional information regarding this matter.

Sincerely,

Charlie Terreni
